RESTATEMENT OF VALUES OF JUDICIAL LIFE

- (1) Justice must not merely be done but it must also be seen to be done. The behaviour and conduct of members of the higher judiciary must reaffirm the people's faith in the impartiality of the judiciary. No Judge of the Supreme Court or a High Court, whether in official or personal capacity, shall act in a manner which erodes the credibility of this perception.
- (2) A Judge shall not contest the election to any office of a club, society or other association; further he shall not hold such elective office except in a society or association connected with the law or any Court.
- (3) A Judge shall not have close association or close social interaction with individual members of the Bar, particularly those who practice in the same court in which he is a Judge.
- (4) A Judge shall not permit any member of his immediate family, such as spouse, son, daughter, son-in-law or daughter-in-law, or any other close relative, who is a member of the Bar, to appear before him or even be associated in any manner with a cause to be dealt with by him.
- (5) No member of his family, who is a member of the Bar, shall be permitted to use the residence in which the Judge actually resides or other facilities provided to the Judge for professional work of such member.
- (6) A Judge shall practise a degree of aloofness consistent with the dignity of his office.
- (7) A Judge shall not hear and decide a matter in which a member of his family, a close relation or a friend is concerned.

- (8) A Judge shall not enter into public debate or express his views in public on political matters or on matters which are pending or are likely to arise for judicial determination by him.
- (9) A Judge is expected to let his judgment speak for themselves. He shall not give interview to the media in relation to any of his judgement delivered, or order made, or direction issued by him in any case adjudicated by him.
- (10) A Judge shall not accept gifts or hospitality except from his relatives.
- (11) A Judge shall not hear and decide a matter in which a company or society or trust in which he holds or any member of his family holds shares or interest unless he has disclosed his such holdings or interest and no objection to his hearing and deciding the matter is raised.
- (12) A Judge shall not speculate in shares, stocks or the like;
- (13) A Judge shall not engage directly or indirectly in trade or business, either by himself or in association with any other person (publication of a legal treaties or any activity in the nature of a hobby shall not be construed as trade or business).
- (14) A Judge shall not ask for, accept contributions or otherwise actively associate himself with the raising of any fund for any purpose.
- (15) A Judge shall not seek any financial benefit in the form of a perquisite or privilege attached to his office unless it is clearly available or admissible.
- (16) Every Judge shall at all times be conscious that he is under the public gaze and there should be no act or omission by him which is unbecoming of a high office he occupies and the public esteem in which that office is held.

Explanation. - For the purposes of this Schedule, "relative" means -

- (i) Spouse of the Judge;
- (ii) brother or sister of the Judge;
- (iii) brother or sister of the spouse of the Judge;
