STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The Maharashtra Regional and Town Planning Act, 1966 (Mah. XXXVII of 1966) provides for planning the development and use of land and for the preparation of Development plans with a view to ensuring that the town planning schemes are made in a proper manner and its execution is made effective. It is proposed to amend the said Act.

2. The salient features of the proposed amendments are as under :—

(i) Amendment of sections 40, 113A, 116, 125, 126, 128 and 129.—The said Act provides for the compulsory acquisition of land required for public purposes in respect of the Development plans and the matters connected therewith. In the matter of acquisition of land for such purposes, the said provisions contain references to the provisions of the Land Acquisition Act, 1894 (I of 1894).

In view of the enactment of the Right to Fair Compensation and Transparency in Land Acquisition, Rehabilitation and Resettlement Act, 2013 (30 of 2013), which came into force with effect from the 1st January 2014, the Land Acquisition Act, 1894 stands repealed. Consequentially, it is expedient to replace the references to the provisions of the Land Acquisition Act, 1894, appearing in the said Act of 1966 by the provisions of the Right to Fair Compensation and Transparency in Land Acquisition, Rehabilitation and Resettlement Act, 2013.

(ii) Amendment of section 127.—Section 127 of the said Act of 1966 provides that the land owner or any person interested in the land may, if the land which is reserved, allotted or designated is not acquired by agreement within ten years from the date on which the final Regional plan or final Development plan comes into force or if a declaration under sub-section (2) or (4) of section 126 is not published in the Official Gazette within such period, the owner or person interested in the land may serve notice, along with the documents showing his title or interest in the land, on the Planning Authority, Development Authority or the Appropriate Authority to that effect and if, within twelve months from the date of service of such notice, the land is not acquired or no steps as aforesaid are commenced for acquisition, the reservation, allotment or designation shall be deemed to have lapsed and the land is deemed to be released from such reservation, allotment or designation.

It is observed that the period of twelve months referred to in the said section 127 is too short to complete the necessary formalities. It is felt that the said period of twelve months need to be extended by a further period of twelve months to complete the necessary formalities.

3. The Bill seeks to achieve the above objectives.

Mumbai,

Dated the 28th July 2015.

DEVENDRA FADNAVIS,

Chief Minister.
