9. (1) Any eligible person, whose application is rejected under sub-section (2) of section 5 or who is not provided the public service within the stipulated time limit, may file an appeal before the First Appellate Authority within the period of thirty days from the date of receipt of, order of rejection of the application or, the expiry of the stipulated time limit :

Provided that, the First Appellate Authority may, in exceptional cases, admit the appeal even after the expiry of the period of thirty days, subject to the maximum period of ninety days, if it is satisfied that the Appellant was prevented by sufficient cause from filing the appeal in time.

(2) The First Appellate Authority may direct the Designated Officer to provide the service to the eligible person within such period as he may specify in his order but which shall not ordinarily exceed the stipulated time limit, or he may reject the appeal within the period of thirty days from the date of filing of the appeal, after recording the reasons in writing for such rejection :

Provided that, before deciding the appeal, the First Appellate Authority shall give an opportunity of being heard to the Appellant as well as to the Designated Officer or any of his subordinate duly authorized for this purpose.

(3) A second appeal against the order of the First Appellate Authority shall lie to the Second Appellate Authority within the period of thirty days from the date on which the order of the First Appellate Authority is received or after forty-five days from the date of filing of the first appeal in case where the Appellant does not receive any order from the First Appellate Authority :

Provided that, the Second Appellate Authority may, in exceptional cases, admit the appeal even after the expiry of the period of thirty days or forty-five days, as the case may be, subject to the maximum period of ninety days, if it is satisfied that the Appellant was prevented by sufficient cause from filing the appeal in time.

(4) The Second Appellate Authority may direct the Designated Officer to provide the service to the Appellant within such period as he may specify in his order or he may reject the appeal within the period of forty-five days from the date of filing of the appeal, after recording reasons in writing for such rejection :

Provided that, before issuing any order, the Second Appellate Authority shall give an opportunity of being heard to the Appellant as well as to the Designated Officer or any of his subordinate duly authorised for this purpose.

(5) The First Appellate Authority and Second Appellate Authority while deciding an appeal under this section, shall have the same powers as are vested in civil court while trying a suit under the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 in respect of the following matters, namely :—

- (a) requiring the production and inspection of documents or records;
- (b) issuing summons for hearing; and
- (c) any other matter which may be prescribed.

10. (1)(a) If the First Appellate Authority is of the opinion that the Designated Officer has failed to provide public service without sufficient and reasonable cause, then he shall impose a penalty which shall not be less than rupees five hundred, but which may extend to rupees five thousand, or of such amount as may be revised by the State Government, from time to time, by notification in the Official Gazette. Penalty.

(b) If the Second Appellate Authority is also of the opinion that the Designated Officer has made default in providing the public service within the stipulated time limit without sufficient or reasonable cause, he may confirm or vary the penalty imposed by the First Appellate Authority, after recording reasons in writing:

Provided that, the Designated Officer shall be given a reasonable opportunity of being heard before any penalty is imposed on him by the First Appellate Authority or Second Appellate Authority.

(2) If the Chief Commissioner or the Commissioner is of the opinion that the First Appellate Authority had repeatedly failed to decide the appeal within the specified time without any sufficient and reasonable cause, or unduly tried to protect the erring Designated Officer, then he shall impose a penalty on the First Appellate Authority which shall not be less than rupees five hundred, but which may extend to rupees five thousand, or of such amount as may be revised by the State Government, from time to time, by notification in the Official Gazette :

Provided that, the First Appellate Authority shall be given a reasonable opportunity of being heard before any penalty is imposed on him.

11. The Appellate Authority concerned or the Commission shall communicate to the Designated Officer or the First Appellate Authority, as well as to the Public Authority about the amount of penalty imposed in writing. The Designated Officer or the First Appellate Authority, as the case may be, shall pay the amount of penalty within a period of thirty days from the date of receipt of such communication, failing which the Competent Authority shall recover the amount of penalty from the salary of the concerned Designated Officer or the First Appellate Authority, as the case may be. Procedure for recovery of penalty.

12. (1) The Competent Authority, after receiving an intimation from the Second Appellate Authority about the repeated failures committed by the concerned Designated Officer to provide public services or repeated delays in providing public services as well as repeated failure to comply with the direction of the Appellate Authorities, shall issue a show cause notice to the Designated Officer within a period of fifteen days, why a disciplinary action should not be initiated against him. The Competent Authority shall initiate appropriate disciplinary proceedings against the Designated Officer under the Conduct and Discipline Rules as applicable. Procedure for fixing responsibility on Designated Officer for repeated failures.

(2) The Designated Officer against whom such notice is issued may represent to the Competent Authority concerned, within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of such notice. In case no such representation is received by the Competent Authority within the specified period or explanation received is not found satisfactory, the Competent Authority shall proceed with the Departmental inquiry as laid down in the Conduct and Disciplinary Rules of the Public Authority :

Provided that, if the Competent Authority finds reasonable and justified grounds in favour of the Designated Officer and comes to the conclusion that the delay in delivery of services to the eligible person was not attributable to him, but was attributable to some other Designated Officer, it shall be lawful for the Competent Authority to withdraw the notice against him.

(3) While fixing the responsibility on such Designated Officer under this Ordinance, the Competent Authority shall follow the principles of natural justice before passing the order in that respect and give reasonable opportunity of being heard to the Designated Officer.

Constitution of Maharashtra State Right to Service Commission. 13. (1) The State Government shall, by notification in the Official Gazette, constitute for the purposes of this Ordinance, a Commission to be called as “the Maharashtra State Commission for Right to Service” :

Provided that, till the time the Commission is constituted by the State Government, the Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, entrust the powers and functions of the Commission to the Divisional Commissioners in each Revenue Division or any other Government Officer.

(2) The Maharashtra State Right to Service Commission shall consists of,—

(a) the State Chief Commissioner for Right to Service having jurisdiction for Mumbai City District and Mumbai Suburban District ; and

(b) one State Commissioner for Right to Service having jurisdiction for each corresponding Revenue Division, excluding the area of Mumbai City District and Mumbai Suburban District.

(2) Every order made under sub-section (1) shall be laid, as soon as may be, after it is made, before each House of the State Legislature.

STATEMENT

Good governance is essential for sustainable development on economic and social arena of public life. The three essential elements of good governance are transparency, accountability and responsiveness of the administration. To improve and strengthen the relationship between the people and the administration, the Government of Maharashtra considers it expedient to make a law to provide for delivery of efficient and timely public services so as to bring accountability, responsibility and transparency in the administration.

2. The salient features of the proposed law are as follows :—

(a) to create a right to an eligible person to obtain public services within stipulated time limit notified by the Public Authority ;

(b) to provide for delivery of public services by the Designated Officers to the eligible person within stipulated time limit ;

(c) to mandate the Public Authorities to notify the public services, Designated Officers, Appellate Authorities and stipulated time limit under the law ;

(d) to provide for giving unique application number to the application made by the eligible person so that he can monitor status online ;

(e) to provide for appeals to the First Appellate Authority, Second Appellate Authority and the Commission ;

(f) to constitute the Maharashtra State Commission for Right to Service for effective implementation of the law ;

(g) to provide for penalties and disciplinary action in respect of officials who have failed to deliver public services within stipulated time limit ;

(h) to provide for cash incentives to such officials who are delivering public services before the stipulated time limit and appropriate awards to felicitate the authorities which perform best in achieving the purposes of the law ; and

(i) to provide for taking action against an eligible person who obtains public services by deliberately giving false or frivolous information or false documents.

3. The Maharashtra Right to Public Services Bill, 2015 (L. A. Bill No. XXI of 2015), containing the same provisions was introduced in the Maharashtra Legislative Assembly in the Budget Session of 2015 of the State Legislature. However, before the Bill came for consideration in the Maharashtra Legislative Assembly, the session of the State Legislature came to prorogued. However, for the purposes aforesaid, the Government considers it expedient to have such law immediately.

4. As both Houses of the State Legislature are not in session and the Governor of Maharashtra is satisfied that circumstances exist which render it necessary for him to take immediate action to make special provisions by making a law, for the purposes aforesaid, this Ordinance is promulgated.

Mumbai,
Dated the 27th April 2015.

CH. VIDYASAGAR RAO,
Governor of Maharashtra.

By order and in the name of the Governor of Maharashtra,

DR. P. S. MEENA,
Additional Chief Secretary (A.R.O. and M.)
to Government.
